Day 2

Drive 1 - Sierra de Gredos Mountains

Your Super Car Drive begins today

By 8:00 am your chosen Supercar will be delivered to the hotel. You will be walked around the car and briefed on all functionalities. We know you can't wait to start driving your sweet ride, we are as excited as you! Exit Madrid to make your first stop at the Madrid Deep Space Communications centre and learn all about space crafts and huge tracking antennas.

Post the tour, pick up the path of River Alberche and follow it towards its headwaters in first mountain range in Spain, Sierra de Gredos. This region has a rich cultural heritage, with many small villages and historic towns dotted throughout the area. Make an optional stop for coffee, keep exploring charming towns or visit ancient Roman ruins and medieval castles while pushing the limits of your supercar as you climb spectacular heights of 1400M en route. Post lunch at the Passo Puerto del Pico, follow the northern perimeter of the Sierra de Gredos National Park and then into the main valley to your hotel.

Day 3

Drive 2 - Sierra de Francia Mountains

After a hearty breakfast, take the wheels and prepare to drive through the rugged terrain of the mountains of Sierra de Francia. Take the winding roads to the Parque Natural de Las Batuecas. The park is famous for its scenic beauty and is home to several species of endangered or rare animals, such as the Iberian lynx and the Spanish imperial eagle.

Make a stop in the charming town of La Alberca, visit medieval castles, cathedrals and a monastery set on top of a mountain at 1700M with the most breath-taking views of the surrounding region. Lunch at Plaza Mayor and continue cruising to the medieval village at Ciudad Rodrigo. The town is known for its 12th century walls and the stunning Cathedral de Sanata Maria. From Ciudad drive west through ski fields and high mountain passes before crossing the border into Portugal.

Day 4

Drive 3 - Serra de Estrela National Park and on to Porto

By now you have a few hundred kms under your belt and are feeling on top of the world as you sit on the familiar driving seat and feel the soft purr of the engines beneath. Today you will drive towards Serra da Estrela, the highest mountain range in mainland Portugal, located in the central part of the country. The park is also known for its traditional cheese-making, which has been a part of the local culture for centuries. The next stop is at a scenic waterfall known as Poço Da Broca where you can take a dip in its crystal clear waters and rejuvenate your soul. Make a brief stop for lunch at the recently opened Alva Valley Hotel, before turning north and driving directly via the highway towards the second largest and most photogenic city of Portugal, Porto.

Day 6

Drive 5 - The Douro Valley and Arribes del Duero

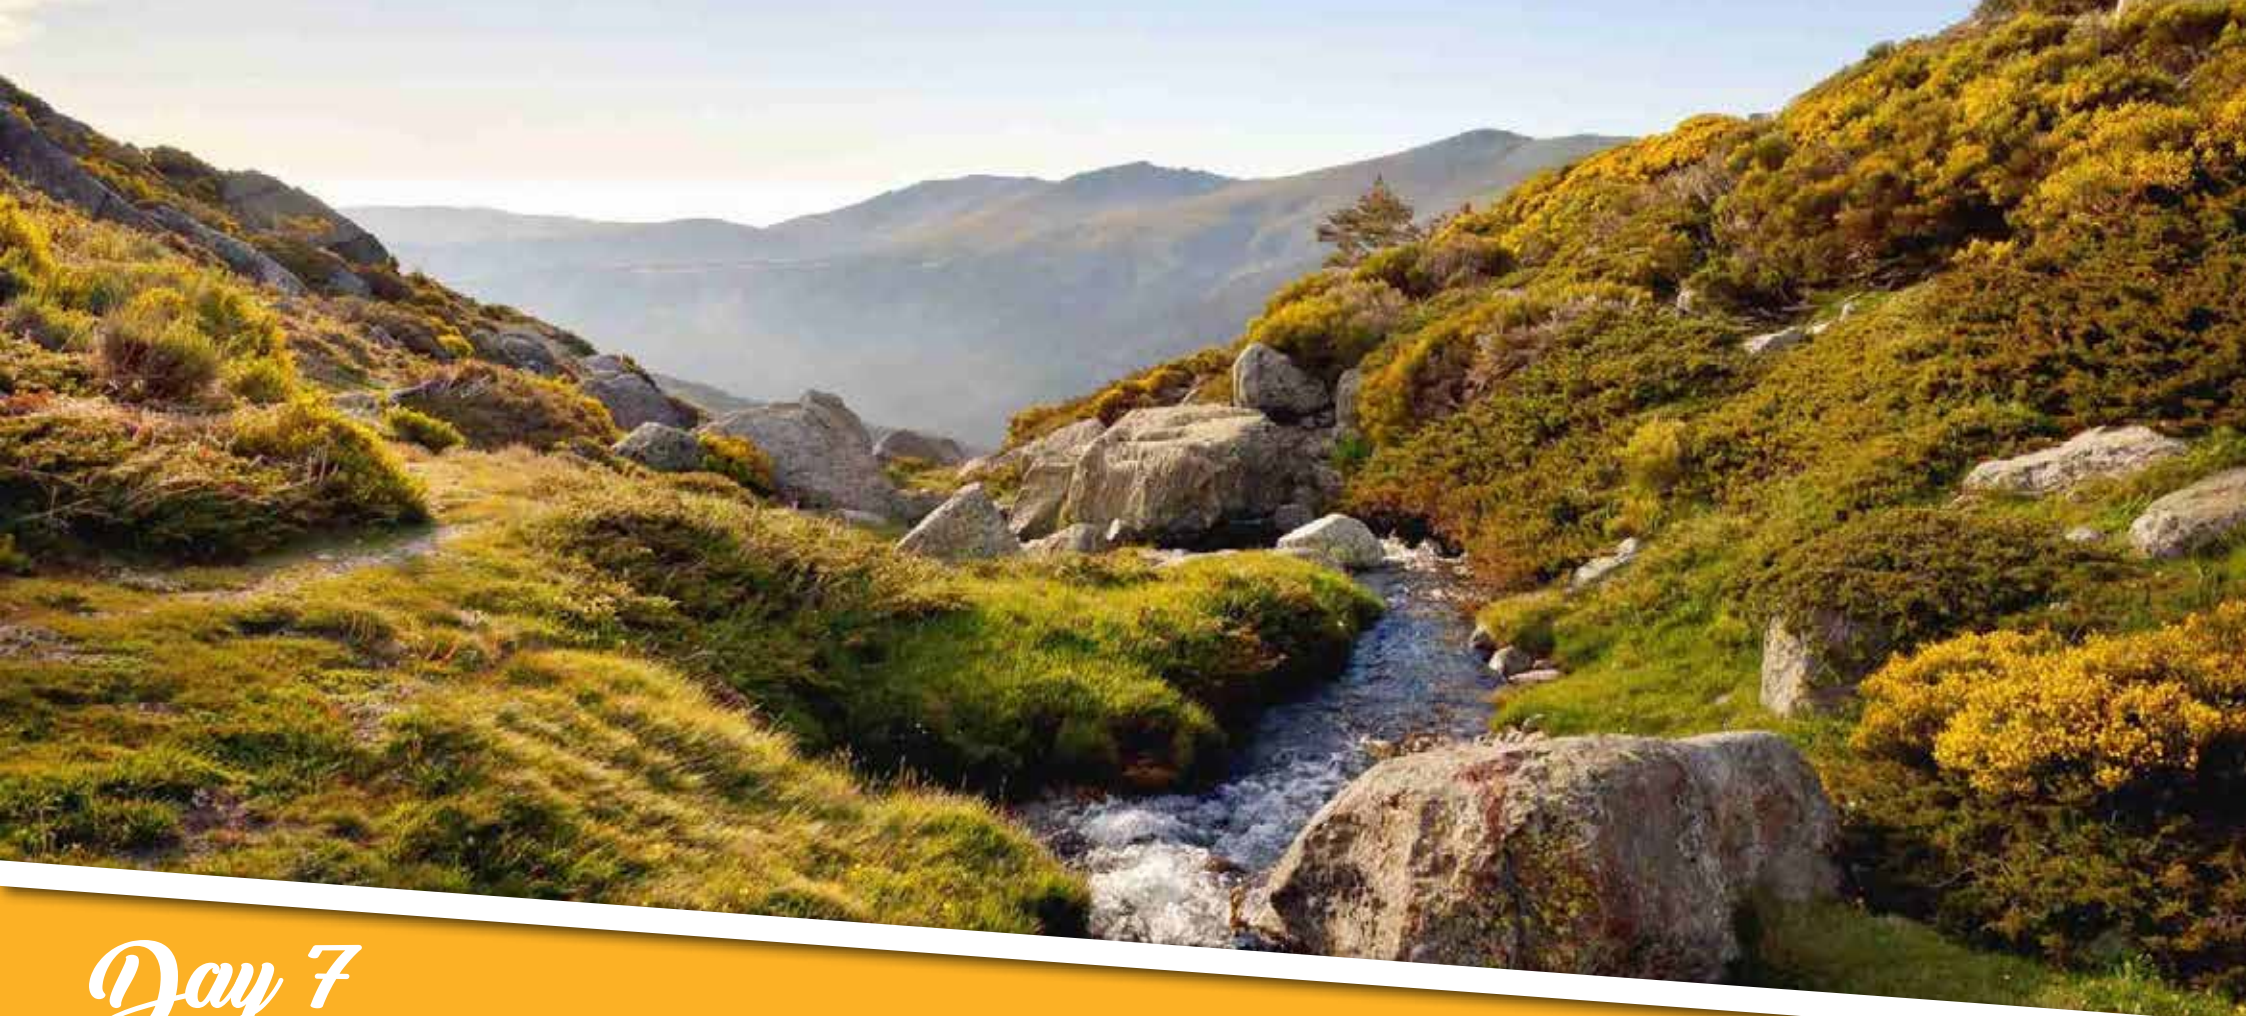

It's a day to challenge yourself on the Open Road! Begin by driving down to the stunning Douro valley where you will visit two of the best wineries in the region while feasting your eyes to the majestic views.

The day gets better when you experience the thrill of driving on the scenic SR222, recognized as the best driving roads in the world. Exit, and take the smaller roads that head directly to a national park, Arribes del Duero National Park on the Portugal and Spain border known for two things, its natural beauty and high quality wines.

Stop for an earlier lunch at Restaurante O Artur for a simple tavern style meal, or continue just over an hour further to La Retonera de Arribes. Between the two lunch options experience some incredible driving roads, a stunning bridge and an impressive dam. Continue now directly toward the river town of Zamora where you can visit a historic castle, have coffee, and take a relaxing stroll along the narrow cobbled streets.

DRIVING ON SR222

Day 7

Drive 6 - Sierra de Guadarrama to Madrid

It is time for the final drive of your journey, we will make it count! You can choose to drive directly to the bustling city of Madrid, explore its bustling fashion streets, cafes while imbibing the energy and spirit of this magnificent place.

Alternatively, follow a four-hour scenic route back to Madrid which begins with approx. 1 hr 45 min. on the motorway to the incredible town of Segovia. Have lunch in the town, famous for its traditional cuisine, particularly its roast suckling pig and lamb, and its local wine. As you exit Segovia, cross the Sierra de Guadarrama National Park and spend the final hours with your supercar on wonderful twisty roads through the forested hills and spectacular views of a reservoir. Finish the day with some Tapas in Madrid
