Day 3 | The Gorge Verdon | Drive Check: 300 KM

At dawn, you will be transferred to the Cannes port where you will greet a dazzling lineup of Supercars. The daring Ferrari 296 GTB, the enchanting Maserati MC20 Cielo, and the sleek Lamborghini Tecnica Coupe poised to conquer the asphalt.

Feel the pulse quicken as you embrace these automotive marvels: the Ferrari Portofino M, and the enticing Ferrari F8 Spider, promising an open-top ride. The Lamborghini Huracan Evo Spyder awaits you to hear it roar. On the other hand, the commanding presence of the Mercedes SL63 AMG and the Porsche 992 GTS Cab's sleek lines will bewitch you.

Seize the wheel, ignite the engines, and feel the growl of the supercars as they propel you into National Park Verdon via Col de Vence. Cruise along Route Gentelly, famous for its feature in the 007 Golden Eye, and traverse along the impressive Gorge Verdon. Indulge in a delightful lunch break in Moustiers Sainte Marie before embarking southeast to explore Luberon Valley's charming villages. Finally, let the adventure culminate at the luxury resort La Coquillade.

Day 5 | Route Napoleon | Drive Check: 250 KM

Today's escapade revolves around the exhilaration of maneuvering supercars along the iconic Route Napoleon, hailed as one of the world's top driving routes. Beginning amidst the picturesque scenery of Luberon and Valensole's lavender fields, the excitement peaks as we conquer Gorge Verdon's "driver's road." The journey offers breathtaking views and a moment of luxury at the highest golf course in the Alps Maritimes. The roar of the engines blends with the coastal breeze as you experience the pulse-quickening joy of being a part of this epic fleet where a Lamborghini or Ferrari will always be whizzing past.

As the sun sets, our day finds its perfect conclusion in the quaint village of Saint Paul de Vence. Here, the opulent Relais & Chateaux Domaine du Mas De Pierre awaits, promising a two-night retreat—a chance to unwind, recount the day's adventure, and anticipate what tomorrow's drive will bring.

Day 6 | Red Rock Route | Drive Check: 150 KM

Today promises an adrenaline-fueled supercar drive through a thoughtfully crafted morning loop, revealing the breathtaking beauty of Cols and mountain roads reminiscent of the legendary Monte Carlo Rally stages.

The pinnacle of excitement awaits as you speed along the renowned “red rock” route, the Gorges du Cians, where every twist and turn will set your heart racing. Driving along these routes in the likes of Porsche or Maserati will leave an indelible mark on your heart. Post-drive, the group will indulge in a delightful terrace lunch back at the hotel, with its stunning views. Later, our adventure continues with a transfer to the captivating hillside town of Saint Paul de Vance, where the allure of the ‘village perché’ and its historical fortifications beckon.

As the day winds down, the group will relax at the hotel’s spa, where pre-booked treatments will pamper and rejuvenate, allowing you to relive the exhilarating moments of the day in true luxury.
