Arrivals into Zurich international airport, where you will be met and transferred by V Class into the heart of Zurich. Steeped in 2000 years of rich history, the city's enchanting Old Town is packed with shopping and dining options. Stroll along the cobbled streets, soaking in the Renaissance architecture and the laid-back vibe. Quaint churches and neon-lit pubs dot the lanes, giving it a picture-postcard appeal. Treat yourself to a luxurious afternoon tea at one of the many beautiful cafes, letting time slide slowly by. A warm ice-breaker dinner rounds off the evening. Meet your fellow trippers and raise a toast to the thrilling experience that awaits! Your hotel for the night is the newly renovated Marriott. Located by the riverside, it stands just a heartbeat away from the shopping quarter in downtown Zurich.

Day 1 | Arrive in Zurich

DAY 2 | Swiss Alps to St Moritz

(Drive Check: 270 KM)

Today is the day when you will be swept off your feet by our lineup of the most coveted supercars. From the classy McLaren to the fierce Lamborghini and many more waiting to be conquered.

With the roar of the supercars coming alive beneath your fingertips, embark on an exhilarating supercar journey, heading south along Lake Luzern's scenic shores where we will make a quick pit stop for coffee. The drive unfolds through Switzerland's iconic routes, cruising over the majestic Oberalp Pass at 2048 meters with a lighthouse summit.

Following Route 19, the wheels of your supercar will be tracing the same path as the Rhine and Glacier Express Train. Afterward, we will relish an exquisite lunch at the famed Flims ski area amidst a summer wonderland.

Soon, it will be time to get back on the road again, and as you steer your supercar toward the Albula Pass, the stunning landscapes and crystal skies along with the adrenaline rush is bound to make your heart skip a beat!

By now the initial nervousness is gone, and you are enjoying the drive freely—a good time to swap your Lamborghini for a Ferrari, or Porsche for McLaren, before we take the road again.

The drive will lead us to the dreamlike Engadin Valley, from where we will head west to St. Moritz, the last stop on today's drive and our haven for the night. You can spend the rest of the evening by taking a twilight stroll in the village or by enjoying locals' company at a pub with pine-flavored brandy and lively music.

Driving from Swiss Alps to St. Moritz

DAY 3 | The Italian Dolomites

DRIVE CHECK: 270 KM

After a hearty breakfast, we will bid farewell to St Moritz. Feel the pulse of adrenaline as you grip the wheel of your supercar, navigating the twists and turns of Offen Pass with precision. The hum of powerful engines echoes through the Swiss National Park, setting the tone for a day of pure exhilaration.

As you cross into the Italian Tyrol, each turn is complemented by panoramic views of the mountainous landscape. In the beautiful town of Moreno, we will indulge in a scrumptious lunch and visit the winery here. We will then venture into the Dolomites National Park which is renowned for being one of the world's most beautiful mountain ranges and live the dream of every supercar enthusiast by conquering the Great Dolomite road, the iconic Passo Pordio and the majestic Piz Boè.

We'll end this exhilarating day on a relaxing note at the Falkensteiner Kronenplatz, which boasts one of the best spa and pool complexes in Italy.

Day 4 | Dolomites Loop & Spa

DRIVE CHECK: 130 KM

Today is the perfect blend of thrill and relaxation. You will spend the first half of the day behind the wheel of a supercar followed by a leisurely afternoon enjoying the world-class spa facilities at the hotel!

Our adventure kicks off as we speed south, taking in the top of Piz Boe and the stunning Drei Zinnen peaks in the heart of the National Park. We'll rev through the ski resort of Cortina D'ampezzo, and conquer mountain passes before indulging in a scrumptious lunch near the summit of Grödnertal. Afterward, we will descend the mountain pass and head back to our designated hotel, where we will retire for the evening.

Three Peaks of Lavaredo

Prepare for an adrenaline-fueled adventure as you conquer Europe's ultimate driving route – the Grossglockner. Unleash the power of your supercar along 48 uncrowded kilometres as you navigate the 36 thrilling twists and turns on this iconic route that promises an unparalleled driving experience. Roar through the Italian Dolomites, refuel in the charming ski resort of Lienz, and plunge into the heart of the Hohe Tauern National Park renowned for its lush forests, mountain lakes, wild rivers, zesty waterfalls, and glacial peaks.

As you steer your supercar, feel the rush as you ascend the Grossglockner Pass surrounded by 200 awe-inspiring peaks that will give you the best high. Afterward, indulge in a lunch with breathtaking views of the Grossglockner Glacier. The stunning landscapes complemented by the sheer power beneath your fingertips would make your descent ten times more thrilling. Drive through the glamorous resort of Zell am See to finally enter Germany, conquer the roads of the Berchtesgaden region and let the curves of Mount Vatumann captivate you.

Embark on an adrenaline-fueled journey along the German Autobahn, hitting “de-restricted” stretches for 64 km of non-stop acceleration. No need for brakes – just pedal to the metal and relish the exhilarating performance of your supercar.

Our adventure kicks off on the Deutsche Alpenstrasse, a 515 km route bordering Austria. Navigate the German Alpine Road’s gentle curves, surrounded by 25 ancient castles, monasteries, and palaces, including iconic Neuschwanstein and Herrenchiemsee palaces. Merge onto Autobahn A95 for a managed convoy experience, reaching speeds of 250 kmph+. Lunch awaits in Garmisch-Partenkirchen, known for its Winter Olympics history and Bavarian charm.

Cross into Austria for a thrilling drive through the Voralberg Alps’ mountain roads, with a breathtaking stop at the Highline 179 suspension footbridge. End the day at an exclusive family-owned hotel, savoring Austrian delicacies at the prize-winning Stube restaurant

Day 7 | The Austrian Alps

DRIVE CHECK: 280 KM

Get ready for the ultimate joyride!

Buckle up for an exhilarating drive through the picturesque Austrian Vorarlberg, transformed into a summer paradise. Picture yourself navigating the Hahntennjoch High Mountain Pass with its breathtaking views, followed by a loop around Mount Santis in the St Gallen Alps, offering panoramic vistas of six countries.

Lunch comes with an option to soar to the summit of Santis via cable car for uninterrupted views of the Swiss Alps. As the sun begins to set, we descend to the shores of Lake Zurich, tracing its edge back to the city. The journey concludes at the Marriott, but the excitement doesn't end there.

In the evening, join us at Zeughauskeller for a celebratory dinner, toasting a lavish adventure on the world's dreamiest driving roads in the most coveted supercars.
